

WORKSHOP

Using Sources in Teaching and Learning History; Discussing the Use of Alternative Southeast European History Material in Turkish Cypriot and Greek Cypriot History Classrooms

Ledra Palace Hotel, UN Buffer Zone

Saturday, 24 January 2009

Working Programme

- 09:45 -10:00 Registration over coffee, tea, juice and biscuits
- 10:00-10:15 Welcome - Introduction by Dr Chara MAKRIYIANNI, Educator and President of the Association for Historical Dialogue and Research
- 10:15-11:15 Examples from the use of the Alternative Southeast European History Material in Turkish Cypriot classrooms, Interactive presentation by Mr Güven ULUDAĞ and Koral OZEN, Educators
- 11:15-11:45 The reasons for the Ottoman Expansion in the Balkans, Presentation by Mrs Zacharoula MALAS, Educator
- 11:45-12:00 Discussion over coffee, tea, orange juice and biscuits
- 12:00-13:00 The Creation of the Idea of a Greek nation-state around the 1800, Interactive Presentation by Mrs Maria MAVRADA, Educator
- 13:00- 13:30 Discussion and Working Lunch
- 13:30-14:30 Aspects of nation-state building in the Balkans during the 19th century – Constitutional mentality and citizenship, Interactive Presentation by Mr Pavlos
PAVLOU, Educator
- 14:30-14:45 Discussion over coffee, tea, orange juice and biscuits
- 14:45-15:00 Critical Thoughts on the Use of *Alternative History Material, Presentation by Mr Marios Epaminondas
- 15:00- 15:30 The Use of Sources to promote Historical Understanding, Presentation by Mr Yiannos Socratous,
Educator
- 15:30 -16:00 Plenary session - Reflections on the use of the Alternative Southeast European History Material in Turkish Cypriot and Greek Cypriot history Classrooms

With the generous support of:

